Foreword

It indeed gives us pleasure to present to our readers the 1947 Mennonite Yearbook and Directory. The primary purpose of this publication is to give complete and accurate information concerning the work and personnel of the church and its organizations. It is fitting to bring together regularly reports and statistical data of the work of the church to measure the results of our efforts during the past year. The Mennonite Yearbook gives a statistical picture of the activities of the Church and indicates along with trends, a busy, active church with opportunities for service for every member.

The Mennonite Yearbook and Directory was issued first in 1905. Since then it has appeared annually except during the years 1909 to 1912 inclusive. The years 1914 and 1915 were combined in one issue. Since 1915 it has appeared annually and has served as a source for statistical information and for reports of the work of the Church in its various fields of service. This issue is the thirty-eighth issue and may be designated as Volume XXXVIII.

The material for this issue has been revised and brought up to date as nearly as it was possible to do so. Much space is given again this year to reports of relief work as it is being carried on by the Church. An additional feature which we believe will prove valuable is the listing of telephone numbers of the ministry of the church. Two notices appeared in the Gospel Herald inviting all members of the ministry who wish to have their telephone numbers appear in the Yearbook to send them to the office. Quite a few answers were received from those requests. Officials of three conferences supplied the telephone numbers for all their ministry. These were inserted as reported to the Yearbook. In the 1948 Yearbook it is the intention to have the telephone numbers of all the ministry. The gathering of this information was quite a task, and great care was exercised in order to have them appear correctly in the Yearbook. All changes as they occur should be reported so that the next issue will carry the correct telephone number. Other features have also been added which it was felt would make the Yearbook a better reference book for information.

The editor wishes to express his appreciation for the fine co-operation and support of all church officials in sending material promptly. He appreciates also the many constructive suggestions which he received during the past year for the improvement of the Yearbook. Many of these suggestions have been included in this issue. As we note the various increases in the work of the Church, our prayer is that the Lord may receive the glory and the honor and the praise, and that we may continue as workers together with Him and with each other acknowledging our dependence on Him for His blessing and guidance in our service.

Mennonite General Conference

BY ALLEN H. ERB, Moderator

The special session of the 1946 Mennonite General Conference is now history. The inspiration and widening fellowship of this meeting proved helpful to all who attended. At this special session, General Conference voted to hold a regular session of Conference in 1947, to which the entire brotherhood will be invited. On account of war restrictions during the past few years, this kind of meeting has not been possible since the large general meeting at Wellman, Iowa.

The general boards of the church have continued to function under the sponsorship of the Mennonite General Conference. Each board has shown a growth and expansion in service in recent years.

The Mennonite Publication Board has expanded its activities in the publication of literature and through extended sale of the same. Branch stores are continuing to prosper.

The Mennonite Board of Missions and Charities has shown the growth in the number of workers stationed, the number of institutions and missions established, and in the funds raised, and we trust in a large number of souls converted to Christ.

The Mennonite Board of Education is assuming its responsibility in providing opportunities and facilities for Christian education of the young people of the Church. Growth in number of students and the planning or erection of new buildings indicate the continued increase in interest and development in their work.

The Commission for Christian Education and Young People's Work has expanded its activities and developed its organization. It has been especially active in the development of a new Summer Bible School course.

The various committees under the Mennonite General Conference have expanded and have been fruitful in their work. The Mennonite Relief Committee of the General Mission Board has been active in a period having acute relief needs. New work has been launched in Asia, Europe, and Africa.

The Peace Problems Committee has been enlarged to twelve members. Besides attention to wartime needs, they have turned their attention to postwar peace and conscription problems.

The Industrial Relations Committee has been active in this period of the ascendancy of trade unionism.

The General Problems Committee has wrestled with the problems of indifference, worldliness, and retarding evangelistic endeavor.

General Conference has sponsored a new organization—Mennonite Mutual Aid. This organization has developed during a time of reconstruction for the men in Civilian Public Service.

A trend that is now developing for the next General Conference indicates that the Inter-board Committee will be assigned the task of outlining definite Christian goals for each department of the church. It is hoped that such objectives as souls won for Christ, missionaries sent to the field, congregations expanded and new ones established, institutions and missions expanded and new ones begun, definite needs calling for a generous expression of the grace of giving, and growth in conformity to the will and nature of Christ will be some of the goals set before us.

Out of all this study it is hoped that a program can be developed for the 1947 meeting showing the proper priority and relationship of each endeavor in the church. Since considerable expression has been given on this point, it is thought that we should come to some concrete statement as to the relative emphasis placed upon every type of church activity.

A Study Committee to study the organizational structure of the General Conference has been appointed. It is anticipated that this committee will have some definite recommendation to present at the next session of conference.

Let us all pray that the will of the Lord be done.

Prospects for Missions

BY S. C. YODER, President, Mennonite Board of Missions and Charities

Since the last year's report was written, changes have taken place in the world that give encouragement to those who are giving their lives to the service of God in the foreign as well as in the home field. Travel conditions, though far from being normal, have improved. Immigration and travel restrictions are being modified and admission into other countries is gradually becoming less difficult. Recently entrance permits have been granted to some of our missionaries to Argentina. The Litwillers, the Rutts, Bylers, Snyders, and Hersheys now have their credentials and will return to the country as soon as transportation can be secured.

Conditions for admission to India have also become more easy, and several new missionaries have gone to that field during the last year.

These much needed recruits will be greatly welcomed and, we trust, will bring new enthusiasm and inspiration to the churches as well as to those workers who toiled on under great handicaps the past years.

The situation in China has not changed greatly during the past year. The internal situation has not become settled, and nothing definite has been accomplished in the way of establishing the long-hoped-for mission in that field. Several workers are under appointment—Don and Dorothy McCammon and Christine Weaver. To date, however, they are still in this country waiting for the political situation in China to clear up.

Several new ventures, however, have materialized the past year. A church has been organized in Puerto Rico and two missionary families are now on the field—Dr. and Mrs. Troyer and Bro. and Sister Paul Lauver. In addition to the church at Pulguillas, the way is open to take over the Spanish-speaking work at La Plata where the Mennonite Central Committee has erected a very fine chapel and is planning to build a home for the pastor.

Recently the Mission Board has taken over the work at Culp, Arkansas, and is planning further developments in the area. The Spanish-speaking work in Texas has been carried on by Bro. and Sister Byler since Bro. and Sister Amsa Kauffman have left the field and returned to Indiana where Bro. Kauffman will assume the pastorate of the Clinton Brick Church near Goshen. Bro. and Sister William G. Lauver plan to take up that work early next year, and will have charge of a new station at Mathis, Texas, and also look after the scattered members throughout the entire border region.

Building operations at the Children's Home in Kansas City and the Mexican Church in Chicago had to be deferred on account of difficult building conditions.

Opportunities for opening new work in sections where relief work has been done are also presenting themselves. Belgium, France, Holland, and Ethiopia are such places. What developments will take place in any or all of these fields will be manifest as time goes on. It is and shall be the policy of the Board to seek the will of God in these as in all other affairs and follow the leading of His Spirit. It is our prayer that the way may become clear and that as a result the message of salvation may be made known to many people.

The expansion of the hospital facilities at La Junta, Colorado, are nearing completion. The raising of funds for the proposed hospital at Elkhart is progressing satisfactorily and it is hoped that sometime during the next year building operations may begin.

There is much to be thankful for in spite of the handicaps and difficulties that are encountered on every hand as one plans for the continuation and expansion of the work of the Lord. Many people are expressing a deeper interest in the activities of the church. Volunteers are coming forward and people with means are more and more making them available.

With gratitude to our heavenly Father for His care and His blessing, we face the future with confidence and place ourselves and our work into His keeping for another year.

Goshen, Ind.

Activities of the Mennonite Relief Committee, 1946

By JOHN L. HORST, Chairman

1. China. The four workers appointed by M.R.C. for relief work in China—J. Lawrence Burkholder, Clayton Beyler, Titus Lehman, and Verna Zimmerman—have been in service in that country since the way opened for them to go early in 1946, after having served in India while waiting. This work has been carried on under the Mennonite Central Committee since it was not found practical to open a separate unit as yet. The Mennonite Board of Missions and Charities is planning to open mission work in China, and two of the workers are planning to stay on for work in the mission after their relief terms have expired. If it is found advantageous to conduct relief work in connection with the mission, our relief workers will attach themselves to the work there. Bro. J. D. Graber is in China now planning for the locating and opening of the mission.

2. India. A number of short-term workers have been appointed by the M.R.C. for service in India in connection with our mission there. This is to help the hard-worked missionaries until a larger force of permanent workers can be placed on the field. A ten-year service program is being planned for.

3. Ethiopia. The work in Ethiopia was begun in September, 1945, when some of the relief workers in Egypt were transferred there. The M.R.C. now has eleven workers on the field—Bro. and Sister G. Irvin Lehman, minister-director and nurse; Bro. and Sister Paul Conrad, doctor and nurse; Geneva Alexander, technician; Ada Showalter, dietitian; Jacob Clemens, business manager, and his wife; Dorsa Mishler and wife; and Truman Diener. The nucleus of their work is a twenty-five bed hospital at Nazareth, also called Hadama, about sixty miles from the capital city of Addis Ababa. Even though laboring under handicaps in both buildings and equipment, the workers have been kept busy treating great numbers of patients, an average of over

1,800 monthly having been ministered to during the early period of the work. The hospital was dedicated early in December. Another nurse is needed for this field. It is the plan of the Eastern Mennonite Board of Missions and Charities to follow this relief effort with direct mission work.

4. Belgium. Cleo Mann, the first worker in this field, finished his one-year term as director and returned home in December. An effective emergency relief program was carried on by Bro. Mann and his fellow workers—Paul Peachey, Wilson Hunsberger, Robert and Rachel Fisher—but this phase of the work is rapidly drawing to a close, although some work will be continued this winter. Sister Peachey is going to join her husband, and it is planned to continue the work in some way so that it may be followed by mission work under the Mennonite Board of Missions and Charities if and when the way opens. Many letters of appreciation were received by our workers for the help which they gave in such needy centers as Liege, Charleroi, St. Vith, and various places in Luxembourg province. The work here was visited recently by special commissioners—Harold S. Bender, secretary of the M.R.C., and Lewis Martin, who is treasurer of the Virginia Mennonite Board of Missions and Charities, as well as Orie O. Miller, who was in Europe in the interests of M.C.C. work. The conviction of all who have contacted the field is that this country is a needy and ripe field for missionary endeavor. May the Lord direct and lead out in this work of ministering to the souls of the needy in Europe. Wilson Hunsberger has already been transferred to the new relief field in Poland, and others of this unit may go to that field as they can be spared in Belgium. The Committee has plans to open a builder's unit in Belgium if things can be worked out satisfactorily.

5. Poland. When Bro. Lewis Martin was in Europe last fall, he had as one of his main interests the investigation of relief needs in Poland. He made a trip to that country in company with Bro. Howard Yoder. Conditions of great need were found and as a result of their investigations and their contacts made with the Polish authorities, the Relief Committee decided to open up emergency relief work there this winter and to continue as long as needed. The work is to center around Gdansk, formerly known as Danzig. Bro. Wilson Hunsberger was at once transferred from the Belgian unit and is now in Poland getting the work started. Food and clothing are being shipped and other workers will be sent as soon as possible. Also in the plans is the formation of a tractor-training unit by means of which skilled tractor mechanics and operators will teach Polish people to operate American-made tractors which are already in Poland, having been taken there earlier by the UNRRA organization.

6. Co-operation with the Mennonite Central Committee. The Mennonite Central Committee has made available its facilities for the use of our Mennonite Relief Committee, which represents our branch of the Mennonite Church only. Through the M.C.C. arrangements are made for passports, visas, permits, and transportation of materials and funds. The M.C.C. also furnishes material aid from its warehouses. In return our treasury gives a regular monthly allocation of $5,000. Besides this, special allocations were made to help in the heavy expense of transporting supplies to Europe and other material aid expenses and the work among European refugees. A sum of $18,000 per month was given for the period of August to November, 1946, when expenses were quite heavy, to help to care for these expenses. The Committee is also co-operating in securing money for the transportation of Mennonite refugees from Europe to Paraguay. A contribution of two dollars per member will be needed to move the first group of 2,000 or more. In all about 10,000 are waiting to find new homes in some friendly country.

7. C.P.S. Dependency and Relief. The Mennonite Relief Committee took care of the work of giving financial aid to wives and children of C.P.S. men where needed and of giving direct aid to needy C.P.S. men who were discharged for physical disability. Money for this purpose was received through special offerings taken by the churches. This work has happily come to a close, because there are no longer any cases of this type of need.

8. Aid to Foreign Students in Mennonite Schools in the United States. In order to make it possible for needy foreign students to take work in our Mennonite schools the Relief Committee set aside $2,500 to be used for this purpose as needed. A number of students have already been helped and will continue to be helped with passage back to Europe when the time comes and the need calls. There are now nine such students in our schools—seven in Goshen, one in Hesston, and one at Eastern Mennonite School.

9. American Service Units. In 1943 the Mennonite Relief Committee was authorized by the Mennonite Board of Missions and Charities to set up a program of service units in the homeland. In 1944 one such unit was set up; in 1945 three were in operation; and in 1946 seven units, comprised of thirty individuals, served in six states, in twenty-two summer Bible schools, and in many Sunday schools and prayer services. The units were placed in the following places: Northern Minnesota; Highway Village, Ill.; Brown County, Ind.; Pinckney, Mich.; Germfask, Mich.; Kansas City Children's Home, Culp, Ark.

At the special session of Mennonite General Conference held at Souderton, Pa., last August a special Study Committee on Mennonite Service Work reported and recommended that "the Mennonite Church set up and administer through the Mennonite Relief Committee a Mennonite Service Program . . . and that General Conference be asked to approve such a program in principle, and to encourage our churches to support the program generously, and to encourage our young people to enter into service freely." This recommendation was adopted, and at a meeting of the Relief Committee, September 13, 1946, the assignment was accepted. Action was also taken to authorize the securing of a full-time director of Mennonite Service Work. At this writing no one has yet been secured for this task, but continued efforts are being made to find someone qualified for the work and willing and ready to undertake it. There are already calls for twelve units for this coming summer and more will likely come in. A unit was formed to work at Culp, Ark., January 1 to March 15, 1947. This type of work seems to have great possibilities for good among our young people and in furthering the work of the church.

The peak of the work of the Mennonite Relief Committee in foreign lands has not yet been reached, and its scope of work in the homeland is continually widening. We ask an interest in the prayers of the church in behalf of the activities of this committee.

Mennonite Civilian Public Service in 1946 and the Work of the Peace Problems Committee

By H. S. BENDER, Chairman of Peace Problems Committee

A. Work of the Peace Problems Committee

During the year 1946 the Peace Problems Committee had two full meetings, April 24 and August 21, to review the work for which it is responsible and to keep abreast of current issues affecting our position on war, peace, and non-resistance. Its organization remained the same as in the previous year, the personnel of the full committee and the two subcommittees containing, since the special meeting of General Conference extended the terms of General Conference appointees another year.

The years' work was marked by (1) the rapid decrease of Civilian Public Service due to demobilization, and (2) the postponement of the crisis in regard to Congressional action on post-war military training. The work of the Pastoral Visitation Sub-committee in ministering to C.P.S. men was continued but in reduced extent. The subcommittee on C.P.S. Policy had little occasion for activity because of the postponement of military legislation. However, in co-operation with the Mennonite Central Committee Peace Section, the committee was represented in hearings before the House Military Affairs Committee by its chairman. The Malcolm C.P.S. Camp farm unit continued under the direction of the committee during the year until its closing on December 10. The committee decided to dispose of the camp and its equipment because of the small likelihood of need for the camp in the future. Due to the resignation of Howard Charles, Guy F. Hershberger was appointed to edit the bimonthly Gospel Herald peace page. A series of five pamphlets describing the activities of the church in the field of missions, education, publication, and Christian education, together with a message addressed to returning C.P.S. men, was published and distributed to all discharged C.P.S. men. These pamphlets were published jointly by the committee and the general boards and commissions of the church. The committee decided to continue its participation in the reorganized M.C.C. Peace Section designating its chairman to be its representative.

A major concern of the committee during the year was the commission given to it by the Executive Committee of General Conference to study the possibility of a Mennonite Service Program. This study was carried on by a special subcommittee whose report was endorsed by the Peace Problems Committee as a whole and submitted to the special General Conference in August, which endorsed the report and adopted its recommendations. The Mennonite Service Program was by this action turned over to the Mennonite Relief Committee.

The results of the draft census were not published during the year as announced in the 1946 Yearbook, but will be published during 1947. The committee authorized a study of the attitude of registered but not drafted men in one conference to determine whether the not drafted men were consistently nonresistant in their position. The results for this one conference indicate that a very high percentage of the not drafted men would have taken IV-E had they been drafted.

At the time of writing, the future of the draft and of peacetime military training are uncertain. It is most likely that there will be no extension of the draft beyond the date of expiration of the present law, March 31, 1947, and there are good reasons to hope that Congress will reject the proposals for a peacetime military training program. In Canada all remnants of the draft were abolished during the year and C.O.'s were released from all obligations. Canada has no plans for a peacetime military training program.

B. The C.P.S. Program for 1946

I. Administration. The general plan of administration of the C.P.S. program under the Mennonite Central Committee was continued without change during the year 1946. The rapid demobilization brought the total administrative personnel down from 162 at the beginning of the year to twelve at the end, of whom only six were used at the Akron headquarters.

II. Demobilization. At the beginning of the year on January 1, 1946, 3,684 men were in the M.C.C. camps, and at the end of the year only 146. Systematic discharges began in November 1945, with men who had four years of service. In May 1946, three years of service became the discharge basis; July 1, two years of service; October 1, eighteen months of service. Special discharges were granted to about three hundred men who were inducted in 1945, and who were released on December 10, 1946, many of them with less than eighteen months service. This was due to a similar move in the army which was followed by Selective Service in C.P.S. An average of three hundred men per month were discharged with over five hundred in March. Inductions during the year were light, with an average of thirty men during the first six months, but only thirty-three men during the remainder of the year, since four of the last six months were draft holidays. All men in camp on December 10 had less than one year in camp; hence none of them will receive discharge before July 1, 1947, unless special action is taken. We may therefore expect C.P.S. to continue throughout most of 1947, although on a very reduced scale. At the beginning of the year there were fifty-one units plus (camps or special service units), with a monthly expenditure of about sixty thousand dollars. A year later there was only one base camp left plus two special units and a few detached service assignments with a budget of somewhat less than eight thousand dollars per month, which will be further reduced.

III. Finances. The total cost of C.P.S. operations under the M.C.C. for 1946 (December 1, 1945, to November 30, 1946) was $446,722.64, which is slightly more than half that of the preceding year. Income was almost thirty thousand dollars more than expenditures, amounting to $474,945.72. The surplus of the year added to the beginning balance left a total C.P.S. balance of approximately $150,000. The monthly C.P.S. quota was gradually reduced during the year from fifty cents per member to twenty-five cents for two months at the end of the year. Again our church did very well in meeting its quota, only a small deficit remaining at the end of the year. Total cash contributions to C.P.S. from our church from the beginning to January 1, 1947, amounts to $1,348,867.49.

C.P.S. dependency funds during the year were again handled by the Mennonite Relief Committee. The receipts for the year 1946 total $53,125.48. A total of $31,729.99 were distributed during the year to C.P.S. dependents. The balance shown now at the close of the program is $14,997.31.

Tables I, II, and III following present interesting details of C.P.S. finances and Table IV gives the distribution of Mennonite men in camp on December 31, 1946.

done by Melvin Gingerich. A major project of this C.P.S. Research was an evaluation questionnaire of sixty-six questions which was sent to over 700 selected typical C.P.S. and ex-C.P.S. men. The results are carefully tabulated. From them we learn for example some of the following interesting observations:

1. 76 per cent of the discharged men thought the work done in C.P.S. was generally significant, while only 56 per cent of the men still in base camp thought so.

IV. C.P.S. Evaluation. A noteworthy piece of work has been done in the M.C.C.-C.P.S. research division as part of the preliminary work for the writing of a C.P.S. History to be

2. 68 per cent of the men in base camps at the time of the questionnaire said they worked less hard in C.P.S. than at home while only 34 per cent of those discharged said the same.

3. 70 per cent of the total 700 thought the peace churches had made the wise decision when they chose to operate C.P.S. instead of being under government direction.

4. 8 per cent, in thinking of their own group, felt that placing all Mennonite groups together in M.C.C. camps had been harmful, while 62 per cent said it had been beneficial and 13 per cent thought it would not have made much difference.

5. In thinking of the importance of personal devotions in their own life, 56 per cent thought the importance had increased, 36 per cent thought it remained about the same, 7 per cent felt the importance had decreased.

Mennonite Central Committee in 1946

By JOHN ANDREW HOSTETLER, Publicity Director

This report will present briefly the activities of the Mennonite Central Committee during the year 1946. This is not a detailed report but the facts given will serve as a summary and skeleton picture of relief and service activities as administered in fifteen foreign countries.

1946 was a year of great opportunity for expanding our means of ministering to the needy in areas where we have never served before. This has not been an easy task, but we rejoice that there has been a steady flow of volunteer workers ready and willing to give their service "In the name of Christ." The church has liberally supported the work of feeding the hungry, clothing the naked, and helping in whatever way possible to bring hope to a war-sick and sinful world. Again, as in former years, the various branches of the Mennonite family have responded as one man to the call for service through this common agency. The Mennonite Central Committee has served not only as an administrative agency, but also has been a channel through which the heritage of our fathers is perpetuated and carried to many areas of the globe. What little the North American Mennonites can do with their gifts of food, clothing, prayers, and cash can be made effective for God if given in the spirit of cheerfulness and willing obedience to Christ.

Supplies of relief and/or personnel were sent to the following countries: Puerto Rico, Paraguay, England, Holland, Belgium, France, Denmark, Germany, Italy, Austria, Poland, China, India, Philippine Islands and Ethiopia. The nature and type of service included food and clothing distribution, refugee welfare work, agricultural assistance, child welfare service, hospital and medical service, loan projects, transportation, building and reconstruction, and Scripture distribution.

New Fields

Robert S. Kreider, entered Germany in February as M.C.C. member of the CRALOG organization (Council of Relief Agencies Licensed for Operation in Germany). Walter Gering and Elma Esau entered Denmark in April to assist Mennonite refugee—clothing distribution and pastoral work. Needs are great in Austria for food and clothing as reported by Bertran D. Smucker, M.C.C. worker who arrived there in September 1946. Dale Nebel arrived in the Philippine Islands on June 6 to begin the setting up of a fifty-bed hospital and medical clinic in Vigan. Wilson Hunsberger arrived in Poland during the month of December to arrange for material aid relief distribution. Investigations and interest was expressed in doing relief work in Hungary and Java.

Special commissioner trips during the year included the following: J. N. Byler to Puerto Rico in March; Orrie O. Miller to Paraguay and Puerto Rico during the summer months, and a visit to Europe during November and December; P. C. Hiebert served for six months in Europe as counselor and advisor returning on October 12; C. L. Graber to the Philippine Islands and China; Lewis Martin and Harold S. Bender to Europe; A. E. Kreider to Europe and the Far East; and C. F. Klassen to Europe.

EUROPE

England

The Center at 68 Shepherds Hill served as the headquarters office for the northwest European program until September when the personnel and office were shifted to Amsterdam and later to Basel. This together with the closing of the home for convalescent boys at Taxal Edge brings our relief service in England to a conclusion except for one member who is serving in war prisoners' aid. Atlee Beechy succeeded Howard C. Yoder as area director of our European relief program in December.

Holland

The headquarters at Koningslaan 58 Amsterdam serves as the home base and center for our personnel. Large quantities of food and clothing were distributed to needy people irrespective of nationality, religious affiliation, or social status. The Dutch Mennonites have helped in this relief effort. The need for emergency relief in Holland is about past. Irvin B. Horst, Director of our work in Holland says, "Although the Dutch people have humbly received our proffered aid in the past, there is now a certain incongruous connotation about the word 'relief.' There are special areas where emergency relief is still needed—but the time has arrived to think in terms of terminating our relief program. The very practical question then comes: Should the end of our relief program mean the end of our work in Holland?"

The Reconstruction and Transport Unit in Holland began work on Walcheren Island in May. The Unit which consists of eleven members is constructing and rebuilding damaged homes.

France

A center is maintained at Chalon-sur-Saone as office and headquarters for food and clothing distribution. The Mennonites in the Lorraine district of France expressed their profound gratefulness for gifts from the American and Canadian Mennonites—food, clothing, and tools—of which many were in acute need. About six of our personnel are working in children's colonies.

Preliminary investigations for a Reconstruction and Builders' Unit were made by Henry Detweiler and Orlo Goering. A unit of twelve started operations on this project with headquarters at Wissembourg. The work of building and repair of war-damaged homes began in late 1946.

Belgium

The Mennonite Relief Committee continued the program of relief in Belgium with approximately six workers. Commissioner visits made by Harold S. Bender and Lewis Martin to Europe recommended changes in the program affecting some transfer of personnel to other needy areas. However, a continued program of relief is planned for Belgium. The Mennonite Central Committee authorized $1,400 to be sent to needy Mennonite families in Luxembourg in response to Harold S. Bender's visit and report of their needs.

Denmark

Two workers entered Denmark in April to minister to needy displaced Mennonites in refugee camps. Bro. Walter Gering served as pastor and counselor in addition to the work of clothing distribution and welfare work. Three workers are continuing to serve there.

Germany

The task of entering Germany with our relief goods and personnel was a complicated and difficult job. Robert S. Kreider entered Germany on March 28 as one member on a team of eight to represent CRALOG, a liaison council between the military and the German people for the purpose of channeling relief shipments. By mid-summer large shipments of food arrived and were distributed through indigenous agencies of which Evangelisches Hilfswerk and Christenpflicht received and distributed a large portion.

Two additional MCC-CRALOG representatives entered in October: Walter Eicher to the French Zone and Cornelius Dyck to the British Zone. A plan for child feeding in the British zone whereby we could distribute and supervise our gifts by our personnel was approved in October. Additional personnel was approved and sent into both the British and French zones in late 1946.

Reports from our workers in Germany indicate an appalling need for food and clothing. One report from Bro. Kreider reads, "Supplies are absolutely insufficient for all the persons requesting help. . . . It is depressing to refuse help again and again because we just do not possess the means. . . . With these nineteen sacks of flour we have to help 34,227 persons. This is impossible."

Italy

Several workers are continuing to serve under UNRRA with assignments to refugee camps mainly in south Italy. Additional personnel arrived there in April including Boyd Nelson the director of the Mennonite Unit.

The Waldensian people in northern Italy were receptive to our service and are in need of food to supplement their hospitals and old people's homes. Substantial amounts of clothing and food were shipped during the year. A plan for staffing a Waldensian hospital nurses' training school with American Mennonite instructors is being planned.

Austria

Betran D. Smucker arrived in Vienna on September 13 to investigate needs and set up a relief program. Food shipments were sent and two additional workers were appointed.

Poland

Investigations were made by Lewis Martin and Howard C. Yoder in October. Negotiations for a plan of agricultural assistance as well as material aid assistance are under way. Wilson Hunsberger arrived there in December.

FAR EAST

India

The relief effort in India continues to function as a supplementary work to the Mennonite and Brethren in Christ mission stations. Martin Schrag succeeded J. Harold Sherk as M.C.C. Director in October. The Unit at present consists of eleven members. Marion Nofziger became ill en route to India and died on July 8 in a hospital in Singapore.

China

S. F. Pannabecker and P. P. Baltzer who organized the work in Honan returned to the United States in July. Personnel has enjoyed a steady increase. Agricultural rehabilitation, loans' projects, and medical work are the principal types of service. The civil strife has caused some disturbance in carrying out the planned relief program but the service in Honan continues with the center and address at c-o Canadian Church Mission, South Suburb, Kaifeng, Honan. Dale Nebel was asked to transfer from the Philippine Unit to be director of the China relief program in November.

J. Lawrence Burkholder is continuing to serve in Shanghai with the American Advisory Committee, 316 Tibet Road, in the interest of the M.C.C. and assisting relief workers as they arrive and depart.

Philippine Islands

The preliminary investigations of setting up a Unit were made by C. L. Graber in early spring. The location and address of the Unit is c-o Vigan Christian Hospital, Box 52, Vigan, Illocos Sur, P.I. A fifty-bed hospital complete with equipment was purchased in Manila and moved to Vigan by Dale Nebel and James Brenneman, M.D., medical director of the hospital. The hospital was opened for patients on October 1 and by late 1946 the Unit personnel consisted of about twelve members.

ETHIOPIA

The Unit and work in Ethiopia (Mennonite Relief Committee) has grown considerably during the past year. A thirty-bed hospital was opened in Nazareth and also serves as a clinic for that community. An average of about seventy patients call for treatment daily. The medical work is under the direction of Paul L. Conrad, M.D., and the Unit director is G. Irvin Lehman. Eleven workers are now serving in Ethiopia.

PUERTO RICO

The cries of poverty, disease, and suffering have not ceased in Puerto Rico. The work and service plan there seeks to make life more livable for the inhabitants and to serve in as many areas and ways as is expedient. Medical care is the larger undertaking. An addition was built to the hospital including a new operating room. As many as fourteen hundred people are treated monthly in the hospital and clinics. Eighteen young women have graduated from the nurse-aid training courses offered by the hospital. The sanitation program has made sanitary privies available at little cost to the homeowner. A follow-up effort designed to eradicate hookworm has been started. The school and recreation plan for children aims to provide an environment for the growth of healthier minds and bodies. The community chapel was dedicated in March. Sewing classes were conducted during the year and the industry has made it possible for some of the Puerto Rican women to earn a better livelihood.

The Puerto Rican people find it impossible to purchase enough food to eat adequately on their income. The causes of poverty lie deep in the economic system. A milk station was set up to furnish free milk to needy children, prenatal and nursing mothers. An effort to make more food available is being carried out by teaching youngsters to raise pigs, chickens, rabbits, and vegetables.

Melvin Lauver succeeded Harry E. Martens as director of the Unit in September. H. Clair Amstutz, M.D., is medical director of the hospital.

PARAGUAY

One of the greatest needs among the Paraguayan Mennonites is for doctors and trained medical personnel. Alvin Gaede, M.D., and wife Anna arrived on September 20 to succeed John R. Schmidt, M.D., as doctor of the Fernheim hospital. A sanitation and hookworm control project is being carried out; a survey made in Itacurubi shows 78 per cent hookworm infestation among the population. Agricultural assistance in the form of crop trial work and fencing is under the direction of Menno Klassen. The supplementary child feeding program was continued at Chararita and Itacurubi with daily rations of milk and cocoa. Preliminary investigation and studies were made in connection with the proposed leper colony hospital. Gerhard Warkentin succeeded Elvin R. Souder as director of the M.C.C. program in Paraguay arriving there on June 26. The Mennonite center is located at 25 de Noviembre 371, Casilla de Correo No. 166, Asuncion, Paraguay.

The Paraguayan government has given permission for the entrance of displaced Mennonites from Europe. The group, if able to come, will probably settle in the already established colonies in Paraguay.

II. MENNONITE AID SECTION

The Aid Section gives information, counsel, and assistance to discharged C.P.S. men who seek rehabilitation assistance. In addition, it has also served as a clearing office and processing agent for foreign students who came to America for the purpose of studying in Mennonite schools. Thirty students from Holland, Italy, Belgium, France, and Brazil came to study in eight Mennonite and Brethren in Christ schools.

A major work and growing responsibility is the service to the displaced persons in war areas and aid in locating relatives of displaced persons in Europe who reside in this country. An estimated 10,000 European displaced Mennonites look to the North American brotherhood for assistance in making a livelihood and finding new homes. Peter Dyck, with his wife, Freda, entered Berlin in June as special refugee commissioner. They were able to establish quarters and facilities for several hundred displaced Mennonites in Berlin. Siegfried Janzen and Margaret are continuing to serve at Roverstein where 400 refugees are awaiting migration. Marie Brunk is serving as M.C.C. displaced persons representative in Europe with office at Amsterdam. Walter Gering and Elma Essau served with the refugee camps in Denmark. Reports from our workers indicate that many Mennonites are scattered throughout all four zones of Germany, some in UNRRA camps and some being cared for by Christenpflicht, a native Mennonite relief society.

The Mennonite Central Committee in a special session on October 31 unanimously approved an initial movement of 2,000 European Mennonite refugees to Paraguay as soon as possible costing about $400,000. C. F. Klassen will represent the Committee in Europe and organize the prospective initial group migration to Paraguay. The special meeting also approved the recommendation that a separate organization, Mennonite Resettlement Finance, Inc., be set up as a subsidiary to M.C.C. for the purpose of aiding and assisting in the migration, location, resettlement, and rehabilitation of Mennonite and other individuals or groups.

III. M.C.C. PEACE SECTION

The Peace Section of the Mennonite Central Committee consists of one member each of the several constituent Mennonite groups and operates with an executive committee of five members. The function of the Peace Section is to keep interested groups informed of developments on such matters as affect local and national relationships, to express our conviction and witness to government, and to study further the non-resistant way of life. Ernest W. Lehman has for the past year served in the Peace Section office. A Peace Section News Letter is produced monthly containing news and activities of peace groups, new literature announcements, and legislative developments related to peace interests. The Peace Section continues to be active as a counseling agent, a witness to government, an office for study and research, and a central agent for peace education.

IV. WAR SUFFERERS RELIEF, MATERIALS IN KIND

The Material Aid Program has been one means of supplying one of the basic needs of those who are suffering. Large amounts of flour and relief cereal were shipped during the year. Material Aid collection centers in United States are located at, Silver Springs, Pa.; Ephrata, Pa.; Goshen, Indiana; Kalona, Iowa; Newton, Kansas; and Reedley, California. Centers in Canada at Kitchener, Ontario, and Winnipeg, Manitoba. Two semitrucks have been busy during the past year collecting and delivering goods to points of shipment. By an arrangement with Selective Service quite a number of assignees worked in the program assisting with the processing and shipment of supplies.

During the fiscal year 6,450 tons of food and 363 tons of clothing were shipped from the United States and Canada. A Christmas bundle project was started in the fall. A total of 8,505 bundles were shipped from the United States and 6,385 from Canada.

V. FINANCIAL

Contributions from the Mennonite constituent groups to the various programs carried on through the Mennonite Central Committee has been much greater in total amounts than during any previous year. This response is both gratifying and interesting. The C.P.S. program declined rapidly during the year which permitted the various church groups to apply their resources in rather large amounts to War Sufferers' Relief. The figures which follow are taken from the Treasurer's Annual Report for the fiscal year of 1946. (December 1, 1945, to November 30, 1946).

Mennonite Board of Education

By D. A. YODER, President

The Mennonite Board of Education is the agency of the Mennonite Church which is particularly interested in the cause of Christian higher education. For this cause the Church continues to sponsor the Board and give her loyal support. It is with sincere thanks that the Board approaches its task, assumes the responsibility, and asks for the prayers of the Church.

The past year will be remembered as one of many and varied experiences. We had been wondering what it would mean to our Board when the schools would open and the student body arrive. Questions in our minds had been many, such as: How many students will there be during the year? If we have as many as we anticipate, where will we have room for them? How will we meet the requirements for additional faculty members to meet the teaching demands? How will we provide enough food in the face of advancing prices and of the limited budget? What program have we in mind to meet the future needs of the schools. These and many other problems are continually before the Board and are a continuous challenge. But there is still a greater challenge than any of the above mentioned, namely, that of providing schools with outstanding Christian environment where Christ is made the center of all teaching, whether in the academic or Biblical departments of the schools.

The task of the Board of Education too often is considered merely as an agency to care for the material needs of the schools, and when that is done, it is taken for granted that it has met its responsibility. Providing the material needs is a part of our task, but these provisions are only a means to an end. The question arises in our minds, Is it justifiable to spend so much time and money for equipment, etc., when there are so many hungry in the world that need to be fed; so many cold that need to be warmed; so many homeless that need houses; and so many unsaved that need to be evangelized? These needs are appalling and it staggers us when we think of the tremendous cost to meet them. But when we make comparisons, we believe the last-mentioned need far outweighs all the others combined as the first deal with the temporal and the last deals with the eternal destiny of men. It is to meet this last need wherein the largest task of the Board lies—the preparation of youth to carry on the work of Christ and the Church.

The Board is very grateful for the large number of men and women who have made preparation to engage in the teaching profession and who have kept in mind the needs of our own church schools. When positions are plentiful where they could receive much more financial remuneration and possibly an easier way of getting desired equipment, they are willing to give their time and talent because they have a love for the cause and for the Church which is sponsoring our work. May we as a Board ever stand by, ready to do all we can in every way possible in this cause. Their task is not only to teach academic subjects, but to teach these subjects and point the students Godward when the trend of the times is to point away from God. May we continue to pray that all our efforts educationally may be to the end that God may have supreme place in all things. It requires a united and continuous effort to attain this end along with much grace from God that we do not fail.

It gives us much joy and a sense of responsibility when we note that Mennonite youth are coming to our schools in increasing numbers. This trend manifests a stronger church spirit without which no church can survive. We as a Board need to foster this spirit and in all our work show that we, too, have a loyalty for the Church which cannot be called into question. Parents and church constituency show an increased loyalty by sending their youth to our schools, by increased gifts for operating expenses, and larger gifts for permanent improvements.

There is also the realization that many are coming to our schools who belong to other churches or to no church at all. This makes us feel keenly the need of holding forth the doctrines of the Word as held by the Mennonite Church that others too may know why we believe as we do. If we fail in this opportunity, we have failed in one of the purposes of our Board. Let us not disappoint any, but let us strive to attain the ideals set by the founders and give all in our power to reach the goal, "Our schools for Christ and the Church."

The Board knows its task and needs the prayers of all God's people that its work may be accomplished. We pray that we may increasingly sense the need of the inner man and make our contribution to supply this need. May the physical demands never overshadow the spiritual. May the Church remember the Board in prayer that the educational task of the Church may be met in the fear of God.

The Work of the Mennonite Publication Board and the Mennonite Publishing House, 1946

BY A. J. METZLER, General Manager

The last biennial session of the Mennonite Publication Board was held at Laurelville Mennonite Camp, near Mt. Pleasant, Pennsylvania, August 19 and 20, 1946. There was a good attendance of Board members and others interested in the cause of good literature. The program consisted of inspirational subjects, discussed by members of the Board and its committees, and the usual order of business.

A major item of consideration was the report of the Constitution Revision Committee. After careful and lengthy consideration of the proposed revisions, action was deferred and a decision made to hold a special session of the Board at Scottdale in 1947.

The wartime scarcity of manpower is no longer a problem. During the past year and a half we have secured twenty-three regular or temporary workers and lost nine, giving us fourteen additional workers. Most of these are men, since during the war we were practically forbidden from employing any men. However, most of these additional workers are inexperienced in the printing and publishing work, and therefore their full contribution will not be experienced during the few years necessary as a period of training.

Printing equipment seems to be one of the last things to become available in the postwar period. So far we have been able to secure only one major machine in our program of improvement and replacing obsolete or worn equipment. We have approximately $23,000 worth of machinery and equipment on order. It will likely be a year or a year and a half until all of this is received.

With the continued scarcity and rising prices of building materials, it has finally been decided to endeavor to build the basement story of the new annex as soon as possible. It would, of course, be so designed as to take care of an additional two stories when circumstances warrant. The basement would be designed so as to serve as a modern pressroom. This would accomplish a number of things by giving us the needed new press department, as well as making more room for the bindery and book department where the presses are now located. As hard as it is to understand, printing materials are still extremely scarce.

The past six months' period has been the most difficult in securing paper. Fortunately, we have not been seriously handicapped as we have always had some kind of paper available for all of our publications, but it has meant substituting in many cases. Furthermore, the quality continues low and the cost continues to rise at a rather rapid pace. At present, the best we can hope for is some relief by the end of 1947.

The bookstores continue to render an acceptable service to the constituency in their respective areas. We had hoped to have an additional store located in eastern Ohio, but not being able to locate a suitable place has delayed the opening of the store.

Just previous to the war, we had developed a nice service to our congregations by representatives co-operating with the local ministry in getting literature into their homes. This was discontinued during the war years. In recent months we have been able to resume this on a small scale. As suitable help is available, more of this service is contemplated.

We held off price adjustments as long as possible. However, during the latter part of the past year price adjustments were made necessary. Having delayed this as long as we did will naturally mean a decrease in our earnings in the current fiscal year closing April 30. In keeping with our desire to provide the best literature possible at the lowest consistent rate, the price adjustments were made conservative and, in fact, less than the actual increase in manufacturing costs.

We are glad it has been possible to secure competent writers to invest their time and talent in the necessary research and writing of manuscripts for future publication. During the past two years the House has invested much more in this type of service than in any similar period in its history. As writers are available and as needs arise, it is hoped that this service can be continued, thus making possible more publications by our own writers.

Among other publications authorized, now being studied, and likely available by January, 1948 or 1949, are a ministers' magazine, a young people's quarterly, and a Sunday-school teachers' monthly.

One of the most constructive and, we believe, beneficial steps during the past year has been the organizing and establishment of a Book Review Service. While this is intended to aid our sales department in the selection, advertising, and promotion of the best coming from the religious press, it is, however, set up aside of our sales department primarily as a consultative and advisory service for our constituency. It is under the direction of John R. Mumaw, director, and Edwin Weaver, assistant director. They are assisted by a corps of competent book reviewers throughout the church. Anyone desiring counsel in the selection of books and the building of a library for any purpose is invited to write to this service.

The tract department continues to expand. While our production has increased greatly in the last several years, yet due to material and labor shortages we are not able to supply the great demand for our attractive tracts. This being directly a missionary and evangelistic phase of our work, we feel justified in expanding it even ahead of some other parts of our work.

Mennonite Commission for Christian Education and Young People's Work

By J. J. HOSTETLER, Secretary-Treasurer

Introductory

The Commission for Christian Education was first organized in 1937 by General Conference to take care of the work of the General Sunday School Committee, the Young People's Topics Committee, and the Young People's Problems Committee. The Commission was then organized with a secretary responsible for each phase of the work as follows: (1) Sunday school; (2) young people's Bible meeting; (3) summer Bible school; (4) weekday Bible school; (5) young people's activities; (6) teacher training or Christian workers' training; (7) missionary education; and (8) statistics. More recently at the request of General Conference there was added (9) home interests, and now this past year (10) junior activities. A Curriculum Committee has also been appointed conjointly with the Mennonite Publishing House to plan and direct the preparation of suitable materials for use in the above phases of the work.

According to the constitution of the Commission, its duty is to study the field of Christian education in the local church and then to devise ways and means to promote better service in these fields. The work is also correlated with local and district agencies serving in these same fields.

Meetings

The Commission (see personnel on page 35) meets twice each year to consider the plans and program of each agency of the organization.

During 1946 the spring meeting was held at the Chicago Mission on May 3 and 4, and the fall meeting at the Kansas City Mission, Oct. 24-26. The various district Sunday-school or Christian workers' conference representatives were invited to attend for observation, instruction, and counsel. Twenty-four were present from thirteen conference districts and two foreign mission fields. Following this meeting all Commission members and district representatives were appointed to the various congregations of Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma, Colorado, Nebraska, and Texas, to speak on Christian education topics over the week end. Everyone reported helpful and inspirational meetings.

In a Commission meeting, each secretary presents a written report of his field of work with any recommendations he feels necessary. The members then work as a committee in considering the same and taking action thereon. The meetings are characterized for their devotional and spiritual emphasis with an extended period of worship at each session.

Personnel

Ten members of the Commission are elected by General Conference, and these in turn choose two others, making a total of twelve. Due to increased assignments in other fields of activities, both A. J. Metzler and John R. Mumaw requested to be released from their offices as Chairman and Field Secretary respectively, during the past year. After due consideration the Commission elected John R. Mumaw as Chairman, Nelson E. Kauffman as Field Secretary, and J. J. Hostetler as Secretary-Treasurer. Bro. Kauffman devotes one half of his time to the work of the Commission.

The Field Secretary serves as the contact member with the district organizations and the local congregations. He is also responsible for the planning and execution of the work as approved by the Commission. Ellrose Zook, from the Publishing House, has been appointed as an assistant to the Field Secretary, to aid in the planning and production of printed materials for the Commission.

Projects

1. A project that was inaugurated recently was the new Program Builder for the young people's Bible meeting, to replace the smaller and limited Topics Booklet. Now 97 per cent of our young people's Bible meetings use Program Builder and acclaim its merits.

2. A major project in process is the new summer Bible school curriculum. These courses composed of teachers' manuals and pupils workbooks are proposed to take the place of those in use for a number of years, and are expected to be ready in 1947. A capable corps of writers has been working for some time under the editorship of C. F. Yake in the preparation of these materials.

3. Another project nearing completion is the new graded Sunday-school materials for pre-school age. This material is being prepared in three courses: Nursery, Kindergarten I and II, and is planned for use in October 1947. This project will later on be advanced to prepare graded materials for primary and junior departments also.

4. A fourth project is the addition of a young people's quarterly lesson help, and a teacher's monthly magazine to provide all teacher's helps in one booklet of current issue. These are in the planning stages at present.

5. A fifth project is that of an enlarged Workers' Training Course arranged a few years ago whereby all adult church people can pursue a course of practical Christian training in their home or local congregation. Due recognition is provided for all who complete certain prescribed courses.

6. A sixth project is the newly arranged mission study materials on the field of India for 1947. A complete kit of materials for either adult or junior classes is available.

7. A seventh project is the preparation of a series of small books written by Mennonite doctors for use in our Mennonite homes in knowing and understanding life in its social and physical aspects.

8. An eighth project is the preparation and distribution of a series of pamphlets to aid our young people in their Christian life and relationships to others, their work, and the world.

9. A ninth project is the preparation of a Sunday-school manual to aid and direct workers in this field for efficient service.

10. A tenth project is the planning and arrangement for the comprehensive study of the Gospel of John during the first quarter of 1947.

Progress

The statistics (found elsewhere in this Yearbook) indicate that the number of Sunday schools, summer Bible schools, weekday Bible schools, young people's institutes, young people's Bible meetings, and boys' and girls' camps are increasing each year. The enrollments in all of these activities have also either increased, or maintained their levels during recent years. Many other gains have been noted in various phases of the work.

Much literature has been produced and used by the church which has been a blessing in many ways. The large use of Commission members by our congregations in the interest of Christian Education indicates a growing conviction in behalf of this work.

The Commission is financed in its work by contributions from the local congregations through their district organizations. The Church faithfully provides for these needs with increased funds as the work grows and becomes larger. Some contributions were made for the payment of writers, which is a growing need in our church if we would have our own authors produce good literature and aids for Christian work.

The blessing of the Lord has surely rested upon this work, and the Commission members seek the counsel and prayers of the Church in furthering the program.

Mennonite Mutual Aid

A New Agency of the Church for Promoting the Practice of Christian Brotherhood

By JOHN M. SNYDER, Assistant Secretary-Treasurer

Mennonite Mutual Aid is the outgrowth of the vision and convictions of a number of brethren in the church, who saw a trend in recent years which they felt was a distinct threat to several very basic values of the Mennonite faith. Modern civilization has brought emphases which have not contributed to the maintenance of the principles of Christian brotherhood, simple living, neighborliness, and appreciation of the rural community and its way of life. Frequently young people have left their home communities to go to cities or other non-church communities for economic reasons; the home community offered no suitable opportunity to get a start financially locally. The home church community all too often has over the years lost the solidarity of the Christian brotherhood concept once characteristic of the Mennonite people. Our provision for the unfortunate and needy among us is no longer adequate to the extent it once was in Mennonite communities. Perhaps almost unconsciously, certainly unintentionally, we have been allowing a part of our heritage of applied Christian brotherhood and mutual helpfulness to slip away from us.

Mennonite Mutual Aid is designed as a means to recapture, in some measure at least, that heritage and preserve it for future generations. It aims to help worthy young people to a start financially without leaving the home community, or if circumstances are such that a change of location is desirable, then to become established in another community within the borders of the church. It also aims to provide in some manner yet to be determined for adequate assistance to persons who are in need through prolonged sickness, death of wage earner in the family, or other emergency. Studies are being made in an effort to develop what will be a scriptural, workable plan to provide such aid.

The circumstance which gave particular impetus to the organization of Mennonite Mutual Aid, Inc., was the discharge of C.P.S. men at the close of the war. These men had served without pay for varying terms up to four years and more, and there were some among them who faced the problem of beginning life in their home communities with no financial resources with which to establish homes or set themselves up in a suitable means of earning a livelihood. The church recognized an obligation to these men—an obligation to provide them with the opportunity to resume life in their communities without being handicapped because of lack of adequate financial resources. Local churches and relatives fulfilled this obligation in the great majority of instances, but there were some who did not have such aid available to them locally.

To serve such needs Mennonite Mutual Aid was organized and began operations in the latter part of 1946.

It was not the purpose of the Mennonite Mutual Aid program to pay returning C.P.S. men for their witness during their time in C.P.S., though some seemed to feel that the church owed them something by way of compensation for the sacrifices this witness entailed. But it was the purpose to provide opportunity—opportunity to establish homes, to work at congenial occupations, to start small businesses, or to begin farming in their own church community.

Every discharged C.P.S. man has been sent a letter inviting him to contact Mennonite Mutual Aid if he has financial or other problems on which he needs help. These letters were sent out immediately upon receipt by Mennonite Mutual Aid of notice of discharge. By December 23, 1946, forty-five loans had been completed, or were approved and awaiting completion, for a total amount of $54,325. Additional inquiries and loan applications are continually being received and processed.

The funds making these loans have been obtained from the following sources: 1. Contributed Capital, $1,100; Participation Certificates, repayable after death of subscriber to his estate, $15,500; 3% Preferred Certificates, similar in many respects to preferred stock of commercial corporations, $5,300; Five-Year, 2% Debenture Notes, $16,800; Noninterest Bearing and Special Notes, $3,000; Loan Repayments $7,812.20. There remains a balance still to be raised to complete the loans approved, $4,812.80, plus an additional indefinite amount to take care of additional loan applications which will be approved from time to time.

Job placement and vocational counseling constitute another area in which Mennonite Mutual Aid is preparing to serve. Demand for this type of service has not been great in these times of plentiful employment, but when employment becomes more difficult to secure, it is anticipated that a very worth-while service may be rendered. Particular emphasis in this service will be the arrangement of employment of Mennonite workers by Mennonite business men, farmers, and other employers.

In order to service the inquiries and requests for aid, it is necessary that an office be maintained, and the modest quarters of Mennonite Mutual Aid will be found in what was once the living room of a Goshen College faculty member, at 1413 South Eighth St., Goshen, Indiana. Here John M. Snyder, Assistant Manager, gives full-time supervision as needed to the growing affairs of this youngest of the organizations serving the church at large. He is assisted by the secretarial help necessary to handle correspondence, records, etc. The Board of Directors, which reviews all loan applications prior to approval and keeps in close touch with the affairs of the organization, meets as often as circumstances demand and consists of the following brethren: Orie O. Miller, President, Akron, Pa.; Simon Gingerich, Vice-President, Wayland, Ia.; C. L. Graber, Secretary-Treasurer and Manager, Goshen, Ind.; H. A. Diener, Hutchinson, Kans.; Guy F. Hersherberger, Goshen, Ind.; John H. Alger, Broadway, Va.; and John L. Yoder, West Liberty, Ohio. Directors are all either appointed by General Conference or are approved by the Executive Committee of General Conference. Because of the nature of the program, operating expense funds will need to be met through gifts and contributions, at least for some time to come.

In its financing program, which has been its major activity to date, Mennonite Mutual Aid attempts to do for worthy young people of the church who need aid something of what a young man's father might do, if he were financially able. That is, through this organization, the church seeks to make available to young people of limited financial resources but good character, ability, and a sound program, the finances they need accompanied by concern and personal interest which shares their problems sympathetically and is more desirous of seeing them carry through successfully with their undertaking than to receive a stated income on an investment. Mennonite Mutual Aid does charge interest on its loans, the maximum rate at present being 5 per cent. But unlike the commercial lender, a given rate of interest income is not its basic concern or reason for making the loans. In other words, Mennonite Mutual Aid aims to raise the debtor-creditor relationship to the level of Christian brotherhood. The interest income it receives is applied first to the payment of interest on borrowed capital, and any residue, together with gifts and contributions over and above necessary operating expenses, will serve to increase the aid and benefits which can be given to those whom Mennonite Mutual Aid is commissioned to serve.

In addition to the above outlined function of providing needed finances for individuals within the brotherhood for establishing modest homes and/or means of livelihood, Mennonite Mutual Aid has been asked to raise the quota of loaned funds assigned to the Mennonite Church for relocating European Mennonite refugees. An initial movement of some 2,000 souls to Paraguay is being arranged for at this writing, which will call for the raising of loaned funds in the amount of approximately $25,000. Repayment will be made out of collections from the migrants as they are able to get on their feet and repay the loans made to them in their time of desperate need. Ten-year debenture notes, bearing 2% interest, will be issued by Mennonite Mutual Aid in acknowledgement of loans for this purpose. It is confidently expected that our people will rise to this challenge, and in addition to generous gifts which will not be repayable, will also make available the needed $25,000 on a loan basis. What better way to invest one's funds than in the alleviation of human distress and suffering, especially when it is Christian brethren who are in need!

Mennonite Mutual Aid considers itself a servant of the church which called it into being. Its highest desire is to serve the church and the Lord of the church acceptably. The support of the brotherhood in prayer and means, in suggestions and criticisms, is earnestly solicited to this end.

Eastern Mennonite Board of Missions and Charities

BY MARTIN R. HERSHEY

The Lord has indeed wonderfully blessed our labors during the past year. We can say with the apostle, "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ." While He has blessed us, we have also had our share of problems the same is in years gone by. But the Lord has been faithful to His promise and souls have found peace with God; the Church has been strengthened; and God's name has been honored and glorified.

Building

During the year the foundation for the new mission building at Rawlinsville has been laid. We are looking forward to the completion of the building during 1947.

New Work

Work has been started in a vacant church building at Mt. Vernon in the southern end of Chester County. With Sunday school and preaching every Sunday morning, the attendance is increasing. People who have never gone to Sunday school before are coming here. We praise God for the Spirit's leading in this work.

Work has also been opened at Cambridge, close to the Lancaster and Chester County line. Bible school was held during the summer, with an average of almost 100. Preaching services are held every two weeks.

Extension

During the year the Itinerant Evangelism Committee has sent four groups of workers to Alabama and Florida to engage in Bible school and evangelistic work. At this writing we are looking forward to sending another couple to the field.

Jewish Work

For some years a committee for the Jewish work has been appointed whose business is to branch out and bring the Gospel to the Jew. Bro. Isaac Baer was ordained for this work during the year. This will be a definite asset to the work.

Africa

On the foreign field some changes have taken place. The Shenk family, the Mack family, and Miriam Wenger and family have returned to the homeland while the Leatherman family and Phebe Yoder have gone back to Africa. The James Shenk family and Grace Metzler have been sent as new missionaries.

The call has come from the field for three more couples during 1947. The Board also has in mind to send three couples to Ethiopia in the coming year. May the Lord lead in this great work.

Finance

During the year 1946, as in previous years, the Lord has laid conviction upon the hearts of His people to help in a financial way. Our missionaries need to be fed and clothed and they need to travel. Our people have been very generous in supplying funds for these needs. The treasurer, Sem Eby, will have received during the year approximately $300,000. This will be the largest income in the history of the Board.

Large sums have been given for Civilian Public Service and for relief. We appreciate the help and prayers of all.

May the work continue that many may be brought to a saving knowledge of the truth. Looking forward with confidence, we know that the Lord is faithful.

Intercourse, Pa.

This is the highest enrollment in the history of the school. For Eastern Mennonite School to meet the educational and spiritual needs of so large a group is indeed a challenge. They represent a wide territory of the church: Virginia, 155; Pennsylvania, 140; Maryland, 31; Ohio, 26; Michigan, 13; Canada, 11; New York, 8; Oregon, 6; Missouri, 5; West Virginia, 4; Delaware, 4; Indiana, 3; California, 2; Illinois, 1; Iowa, 1; Louisiana, 1; Minnesota, 1; Montana, 1; South Dakota, 1.

*These figures do not include the second semester.

Bible Correspondence

At present 120 are enrolled in this department. Many young men and women who discover that they cannot attend school in residence are availing themselves of the opportunity of studying by mail. Some congregations are using these courses for their Bible study classes.

Alumni Association

The Alumni Association now numbers 1206 living members. Of these, a large number are serving the church in very definite channels of Christian service. A cross section of their fields of labor would show them at work in East Africa, Ethiopia, South America, Europe, India, Philippine Islands, Canada, and in about thirty of the forty-eight states.

Faculty Changes

Ava Rohrer Horst is now with her husband in Holland where they are engaged in relief work. Mary Emma Showalter, who has been serving in relief work in Egypt and England for two years, is teaching home economics and serving as dietitian in Mrs. Horst's place. Harry A. Brunk is pursuing graduate studies at American University. C. Norman Kraus, Denbigh, Virginia, is teaching the high school history classes. Moses Slabaugh is absent from the faculty on account of his health. Norman H. Derstine, Doylestown, Pa., is serving in the high school Bible department as well as in the Bible correspondence department. Harold D. Lehman is teaching physical education and English.

Assisting the faculty as teachers are: B. Charles Hostetter, Manheim, Pa., and John H.

Shenk, Knoxville, Tenn., in the high school Bible department; Elizabeth Buckwalter Hess, in home economics and mathematics; Daniel Suter, in biology; and Gladys E. Hostetter, in bookkeeping.

Melvin Ruth, Dean of Men, is still unable to serve because of his health. Lester C. Shenk is serving in his stead as Acting Dean of Men with Richard Detweiler as assistant.

Library

During the past year more than a thousand books have been added to the library. This brings the total number of books to more than 9,000. We hope to add many more during the year to keep this reservoir of knowledge as fresh and up to date as possible.

Extracurricular Activities

Realizing that young people have many and varied talents and interests that should be trained and developed, many that formal education does not reach, we have this year organized a number of new extracurricular study or activity groups. Religious activities include the sponsorship of some phase of prophetic study, current religious literature, Mennonite history, memory of Scripture, relief projects. Non-religious activities that have been newly organized are in such areas as debating, the reading of books, writing, woodcraft, art appreciation, current events, needlecraft, games, music, library methods, etc. Each group meets once a month, has faculty sponsorship, accepts membership by choice only, and aims to follow practical and inspirational ideals in the things that students will enjoy.

Building Program

Due to wartime restrictions, it remains impossible to start the construction of the new dormitory, the science building, or any other building which we need so urgently. Our large enrollment forces us to use every available space at its maximum capacity. Two extra buildings were made available during the summer and much work was done to adapt them to dormitory purposes, one for college senior and junior girls, and one for college boys. We hope that, in the near future, the building program can go on unhindered.

Rural Missions Conference

In September of this year, a conference on rural missions was conducted for the first time and chose to hold its meetings on our campus. It brought many Christian workers into our midst for a few days. This contact, together with the power of Spirit-filled messages, made this conference one of vital significance to us. We met again the challenge of "becoming all things to all men."

New Courses

Several courses are being offered this year for the first time: Early Christian Thought, Modern Christian Thought, and Homiletical Use of the Bible in the College Bible department. Vocational Civics is offered as an elective in the high school. In several areas courses have been offered in these fields: Christian Theology, Old Testament Book Study, and New Testament Book Study.

The third year of work in the college department was offered this year. Pending an official inspection soon, we hope to have approval for granting the following college degrees by the end of the next session: Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science in Education, and Bachelor of Religious Education.

General

Eastern Mennonite School is realizing every day the growing place of Christian education as an asset in the fulfillment of the mission and work of the church. Eastern Mennonite School needs your prayer support that she may remain steadfastly true, that the light of pure knowledge may constantly burn brightly within her walls, and that her accomplishments may always be a savor of life unto life.

Lancaster Mennonite School

By J. PAUL GRAYBILL, Principal

The blessing of the Lord seems to be evident as the School continues its work and testimony from year to year. The School makes a serious attempt to meet the various issues that naturally come to a church school.

Lancaster Mennonite School represents conservative viewpoints on a number of issues. This position naturally does not make the school inviting to a certain type of student. But it seems even with these conservative policies followed, the School enrollment increases from year to year. We do believe that there are many parents and Church leaders that appreciate a school that will be safe for their children to attend. This policy brings to us many students who have strong convictions in favor of holding to certain standards of life and conduct, which the Mennonite Church has espoused during the years.

The question often arises whether the church school should have higher standards and requirements than the local church or Conference. Lancaster Mennonite School administration feels that the conference and the home church often inadequately meet the problem of an evident decline in spiritual life and representative practices. But the church school, because of its teaching facilities, students' close contact with teachers, the administration having more opportunities available to promote these standards, is in a position to help the church along this line. At the same time, because of active workers, which a church school will naturally provide, the school is under a great obligation to serve the church with students that are fully in accord with the tenets of faith.

Faculty

We now have thirteen members on our faculty, including a full-time Hall Manager and a full-time Matron. Bro. Clayton L. Keener came to the school as a new faculty member and is teaching Science and Mathematics. Bro. Keener is a pastor in the New Providence and Mechanic Grove churches. He was a former principal in a township high school.

Bro. Clyde B. Stoner, who was absent for the whole of last year of school, was expected back by January 1, 1947, but was released a few months before that time and rejoined our teaching staff during the latter part of October. Bro. Stoner has taken up his work as Business Manager, as member on the Supervising Committee, and teacher of Music and Commercial subjects.

Bro. Richard Kling came in October to be a full-time Hall Manager relieving Bro. Brubaker for more teaching.

Building

At this time negotiations are in progress to secure a building permit. The building is certainly very much needed because of overcrowded conditions, but we patiently wait the Lord's time for this much needed addition to our school plant.

Curriculum

The curriculum stays practically the same as in former years because additional departments cannot be added for lack of room. The High School Bible Department, which offers two years of Bible with graduation at the end of two years, continues with a few in that department. We feel to urge publicity in this department, for there should be many of our young people taking advantage of this for their Christian life and as well to prepare them to take their place in Christian work.

Our Students

Our students come largely from local points, but this year has evidenced a continued outreach; 208 are enrolled; 48 are Seniors. A number of students are coming from the Franconia district, a few from Mifflin County, and a few from the State of Maryland.

Because of the scarcity of teachers in the township schools as well as in the Christian Day Schools, a few of our graduates have entered the schoolroom from our high school and a few other former graduates entered the schoolroom after taking a year or two of college work elsewhere.

Appreciation

We appreciate the loyal support of many of our constituency in both prayer and good will. We request your continuance of prayer support because of the possibilities and problems incident to our schoolwork. Financially, the interest is growing and we also want to express our appreciation for the much canning that has been done for our dining-room tables.

We continue to invite students from various sections of the church. While this is a local school, we are glad to have others take advantage of these opportunities.

A New Old People's Home

By S. E. EICHER

As early as 1921 a number of brethren had a vision of an old people's home located in the Pacific Coast District. In recent years this conviction has been intensified to the point that the district conference has taken steps to promote this undertaking.

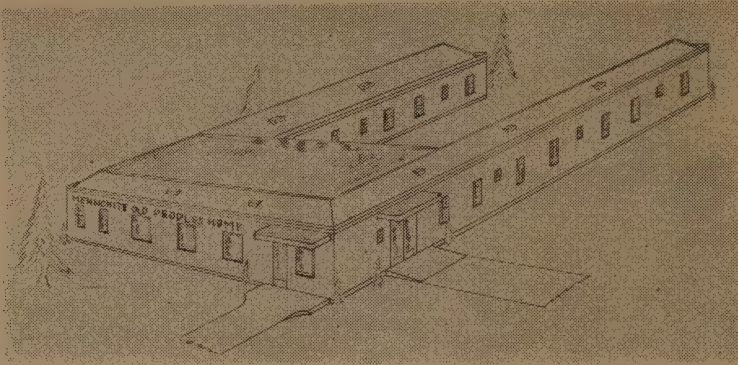

In 1931 our conference appointed a committee of three members to investigate the advisability of establishing an old people's home in the district in the near future. A favorable report was accepted at our 1944 annual conference, and at this time the moderator appointed two additional members to this committee. Since the group of Conservative Mennonites at Harrisburg, Oregon, were also intensely interested in this movement, they were invited to appoint a member to this committee, making a total of seven members.

One member of this committee visited institutions of this nature in our denomination and a number of old people's homes of other churches, especially in the West. After considering plans, experiences, our mild climate, and so on, the committee suggested the plan for this home, which was accepted by conference.

Since our district mission board holds all deeds to properties and has general oversight of institutions of this kind, subject to conference, this work was placed under the Mennonite Mission Board of the Pacific Coast District at our annual conference in June 1945, and we continued to co-operate with the Old People's Home Committee and a Building Committee appointed at this time.

A policy of our Mission Board is not to go into debt. The estimated cost of the project was $35,000. Part of this was already subscribed and the board and committee put forth effort to raise the balance by free-will offerings. Through the cheerful giving of individuals, families, the Harrisburg congregation, and our church at large, the estimated cost has been donated, for which we again HEARTILY THANK YOU ALL and feel that God will bless you for your generosity. The advance in price of material and labor has been offset by larger donations of material and labor.

Any money received for the building fund that will not be needed for the buildings under construction now may be used in the future for expansion in the way of cottages or otherwise. At present we have a fund started for furniture, kitchen equipment, and other furnishings for this Home. Any gift for this cause will be greatly appreciated.

In May of this year we received the proper governmental recognition to proceed in building the proposed old people's home. On June 10 a ground-breaking service was held on the seven acres donated and chosen for this home 3 miles southeast of Albany, Oregon.

The unavailability of material and help has caused numerous delays; however, the combined utility room, double garage, and laundry room are about complete, also all the other buildings except the main building, which is ready for plaster. We know of no plaster available but believe the Lord will provide.

As indicated by the waiting list of elderly brethren, sisters, and others, a real need exists for this Old People's Home. The Home's existence on the West Coast is also justified because we as a denomination have no such institution west of Illinois, a distance of about 2,000 miles.

We thank the Lord for His definite leading in this project thus far. Since we number about 1,700 members in this district, scattered over three states, we keenly appreciate your prayers, interest, and gifts that have a great part in making it possible to look forward to an Old People's Home in operation in our district in the not too distant future. Again, we thank you all.

Bishop Maurice O'Connell (1895-1946)

By DARWIN O'CONNELL

Maurice O'Connell, youngest son of Dennie and Adelia (Paton) O'Connell, was born in the city of Fort Wayne, Indiana, on September 4, 1895. He died March 16, 1946, in St. Rita's Hospital in Lima, Ohio, after an illness of three months' duration.

In his early youth, he was stricken with an affliction of the spleen and malaria. This double attack caused him to be bedridden for a period of time. It was during this period that he was exposed to the Word of God for the first time. His doctor gave him a Bible, which he read very much.

Coming from a family in which the father was a Catholic and the mother made no profession, there was not the opportunity to receive any Christian training in the home. What little training and Bible instruction he received came from an old Christian doctor in Fort Wayne who served as his Sunday-school teacher in a popular church in the city. This was Dr. George Stemen, who was a descendant from the Mennonite community around Elida, Ohio.

After completing his eighth grade education, he quit school and began earning his own way in the world at the age of fourteen. Several years later he moved to Hammond, Indiana, and lived with his sister, Mattie. It was while he was living and working in Hammond that he became acquainted with a young lady by the name of Geneva Soltwedel. In March 1915, they were united in marriage.

Shortly after being married, he moved back to his native city of Fort Wayne. During this ensuing time, his mother became converted during a city-wide revival campaign in Fort

Bishop Maurice O'Connell

Wayne, conducted by Dr. Lyons. Responding to her desire to affiliate herself permanently with a church, she united with the Mennonite Mission in Fort Wayne. Largely through her efforts and the prayers of God's people, both Father and Mother became converted and joined the Fort Wayne Mission.

Being a confirmed smoker and not familiar with the Mennonite way of life, Father found his first several years of church membership more or less an "in-and-out" affair. He often recounted how he would resolve to do better and then throw his pipe and tobacco in the river only to walk in at the first drugstore and buy a new supply. Bro. B. B. King, who was then the superintendent of the Fort Wayne Mission, spent much time in prayer with Father, in an effort to free him from this sinful, deadly habit.

After he won victory over the tobacco habit, his next crisis experience seemed to be that of making restitution for petty thefts which he had committed prior to his conversion. Through the power of God, he saw this crisis through to victory. It was during these early years in the church that two sons were born to this home—Darwin and Darrell.

As a member of the Fort Wayne congregation, he led a very active life in church work serving as superintendent or assistant superintendent of the Sunday school for many years. He also served for several years as superintendent of the Sunday school of the "One Hundred Acres" Chapel—a branch Sunday school of the Fort Wayne mission. In addition to these activities, he also taught Bible classes both at the chapel and at the mission as well as in his own home.

In 1926, he was appointed superintendent of the Lima Mission. In 1928, this appointment was more fully confirmed by his ordination to the Gospel ministry with Bro. S. E. Allgyer officiating.

During the early years of his ministry, he began to be used by the church as an evangelist. This work soon occupied a great share of his entire working program and took him to all localities of the Mennonite Church in the United States and Canada.

In 1940, the Lord called him to greater responsibilities. His congregation chose him to be their bishop. In his new field of service, he served his church in many ways. He served as chairman of the Problems Committee of the Ohio Mennonite and Eastern A. M. Joint Conference and later on its executive committee. In 1944, he was elected assistant moderator of his church conference. During the short six years of service which he rendered to his church as a bishop, he exercised the spiritual oversight over four congregations, namely, Pike, Salem, and Lima congregations in Allen County and Mt. Pleasant congregation in Putnam County. The last three years of his life were quite strenuous. He personally interceded with the government officials at Toledo, Ohio, for every boy in his district for a IV-E rating, kept the financial records of the civilian relief bonds for members of his district, served on his conference executive committee, and superintended the work of the Lima Mission.

He was a loving father and had the interest of his family and of his church at heart. During the latter years of his life, he expressed his deep concern over the sinfulness existing in the world and the necessity of proclaiming the Gospel message to the lost. He was also deeply concerned as to the future course of our city mission program in the Mennonite Church. His sympathy went out to our young men and women who are converts of our city missions. He believed that they were striving to maintain their Christian testimony in spite of great odds and consequently needed more appreciative concern for their plight and the prayers of God's people so that they would remain true to the Word of God.

Funeral services were conducted at the Lima Mission with Bro. S. E. Allgyer officiating. Interment was at the Salem Cemetery near Elida, Ohio. Bro. Allgyer was a very close friend to Father. It was under Bro. Allgyer's preaching that Father made his decision for Christ. He, later baptized him, called him to city mission work (when Bro. Allgyer was Field Secretary of the General Mission Board), ordained him to the ministry, and later to the office of bishop, and finally preached his funeral sermon.

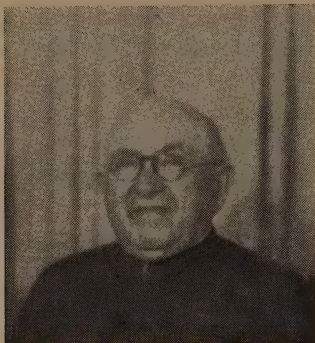

Father was not without his mistakes and weaknesses, but he was always thankful that he had made a decision to live for Christ and that he had a loving heavenly Father to whom he could go for forgiveness and guidance and counsel. One of Father's favorite verses of poetry was:

"One short life, 'twill soon be past,
Only what's done for Christ will last."

Bishop John Mellinger Kreider (1869-1946)

BY NELSON KAUFFMAN

Bishop John Mellinger Kreider

On a farm adjoining the little village of Soudersburg, Pa., eight miles out of Lancaster City, John Mellinger Kreider was born May 24, 1869, to George and Anna Mellinger Kreider. Little John's Grandmother Mellinger, who spent hours reading to him from the Bible, made a lasting impression for good on his early life. He attended the village school at Soudersburg which joined his father's farm. His formal education ceased with the eighth grade, but from that day on he became a diligent student of the Scriptures.

In his boyhood he attended regularly the Strasburg Mennonite Church; Sunday-school services were held in the afternoon. When about twenty, he followed the ministers into the ante-room one Sunday to make known to them his desire to become a member of the church. Although they felt a young man of twenty was hardly capable of comprehending the meaning of the doctrine of salvation, after considering his request, they concluded that if this young man had sufficient interest in spiritual things to leave a young people's gathering on Sunday afternoons to attend the house of God, he was qualified for church membership. Consequently he was baptized. He proved his sincerity by taking an interest in other youths. He and a close friend, Amos Ressler, opened and conducted a Sunday School at Ronks, Pa., and John acted as superintendent. A short time later he was asked to assist in evening Bible Reading classes at this same place.

In the year of 1890 he was married to Hettie Buckwalter. For eight years they lived on a ten-acre farm near the home place. He engaged in truck gardening and marketed his products in Lancaster City.

In the year 1884 the first Mennonite families in Lancaster County decided to go west of the Mississippi. Approximately seventeen adults with their children located in Marion County, Mo., by 1898. This group felt a definite need of a minister. For eight years they struggled along holding services without a pastor. When one of this group went back to Pennsylvania to attend a funeral, the others asked him to try to find a qualified brother to return with him. Bishop Isaac Eby was the first brother to be approached about the matter, and he thought immediately of the ambitious young John Kreider. He secured permission from the Lancaster Conference to ordain this brother, although quite young for such a responsibility. At the age of twenty-nine, John M. Kreider was ordained to the ministry at the Paradise Meetinghouse, near Lancaster, on Feb. 11, 1898. He with his wife and four children, Lena M., George, Anna, and Jesse, and his first cousin John H. Hershey, and family, moved to Missouri.

In Missouri, John M. Kreider found himself 60 miles from the nearest minister and 175 miles from a bishop. For a number of years this small group of worshippers met in the various homes, then in a schoolhouse, and later in a rented church in the town of Palmyra. Six years later a small church was erected two miles east of Palmyra on the 160-acre farm which John later bought from Jacob Rohrer. Five children were born in the large plantation house: John, Harry, Daniel, Amy, and Philip. George and Harry died in early youth, and Philip passed away in 1935. Brother and Sister Kreider also gave a home to two orphan children for fourteen years.

J. M. Kreider was a firm believer in Christian education. Although he himself was deprived of a higher education, he sent his seven children who grew to maturity, to Hesston College and Bible School. For a number of years he served as a member of the Mennonite Board of Education. Few Mennonite bishops of equal means have given more freely of time, money, and counsel to the Christian education program of the church.

On Sept. 29, 1912, John M. Kreider was ordained bishop by Bishop Daniel Kauffman. He was given oversight of all the congregations in northeastern Missouri. Bishop J. M. Kreider was an active evangelist for twenty-five years, serving in all parts of the United States and Canada. He filled important places on a number of church boards and committees. He was chairman of the first Hospital Study Committee in the Mennonite Church, the outgrowth of which is the La Junta Hospital of today. He did a notable work on the committee which arranged the merging of the Mennonite and Western Amish Mennonite Conferences. No one person did more than he to help in the spiritual growth of the small Dakota-Montana, now North Central, Conference. In more recent years he spent months in that conference district helping in ordinations.

J. M. Kreider had a very characteristic way of preaching. His messages were always dynamic and filled with illustrations taken from his own experiences. He was a man of firm and positive convictions. He was outspoken against sin and worldliness. Some considered him rather severe, but those who were most closely associated with him learned to know him as a tender-hearted, sympathetic, considerate minister. During the forty-eight years of his ministry he had only a small congregation of his own, but his teaching and preaching and unwavering zeal for the work of the church reached from coast to coast.

He was assisted in the ministry for many years by his brother-in-law, Harry R. Buckwalter, and his son, John, who is a deacon. When he reached the age of seventy, he made a request to the conference for the ordination of a younger man to assist him in his bishop work; and so in 1940 the writer was assigned this work and spent six happy years working with this older man before God called him home February 28, 1946.

As an expression of deep respect for J. M. Kreider, friends and relatives came from eight states, and it was the largest funeral ever held in his home congregation.—Condensed from the Mennonite Historical Bulletin.

Henry B. Keener (1882-1946)

BY CHESTER K. LEHMAN

On February 2, 1946, Henry B. Keener passed from the scenes of life "to be at home with the Lord." In his passing the Parkview community, Eastern Mennonite School, and the church sustained a great loss; for in Bro. Keener were combined the qualities of a Christian neighbor, a lover of music, a teacher of the Bible, preacher and pastor, a beloved father, husband, and grandfather, a devoted son, a loving brother, and a fervent Christian.

Bro. Keener was born November 3, 1882, in a rural community in Pennsylvania near to the strong Mennonite community near Hagerstown, Maryland, where he grew up in the quiet of country life. He moved to Virginia and pursued music studies under the late J. D. Brunk and J. H. Hall, and rendered faithful service in teaching music for a number of years in this and in other states. He was ordained to the ministry in 1908 especially for the West Virginia mission field where he devoted four years of active service. After he returned to Rockingham County he became identified with Eastern Mennonite School, serving first as instructor of music in the four-week Special Bible Term at Hayfield Mansion near Alexandria in 1915 and from 1919 as a regular member of the faculty. He was teacher of music and Bible until 1934 when by reason of ill health he reluctantly resigned and spent the remainder of his life in quiet retirement.

With a relatively short life of sixty-three years, Bro. Keener left a deep impress upon the School and church. His major contributions were made in the field of music and Bible teaching. Outside of the School, his strength lay in his work as a minister, pastor, and counselor. A brief survey of these channels of usefulness will help us to evaluate properly the significance of the life of our departed brother.

The Interpreter of Sacred Music

Bro. Keener's contributions in this area went far beyond that of merely teaching rudiments of music and of drilling classes in sight singing. He infused a much more valuable element in that of interpreting for his students the higher values of sacred music. He was a lover of the better types of the great musical heritage which is ours today. It was he who led many students into a deep appreciation of the type of hymns found in the Church Hymnal. When asked to conduct special song services, he was gifted in creating an atmosphere of worship and of leading congregations in a meaningful adoration and praise of God. One of his favorite themes in such special music services was that of Christian experience. He took special delight in carefully choosing songs that express most beautifully the varied experiences of the Christian and in showing the values of those songs in which we speak one to another.

Henry B. Keener

As indicating his fine sense of discrimination and evaluation, his favorite hymn, "O Love That Casts Out Fear," is sufficient evidence. This appreciation of superior music reached a climax in such great choruses as, "The Heavens Are Telling," the "Hallelujah Chorus," and those of the oratorio, "The Holy City." Singing for a number of years the bass solos of this oratorio at its annual rendition at Eastern Mennonite School he lifted us in spirit to this heavenly abode, for he seemed to have been for the moment witnessing the glory of heaven and of the "harpers harping with their harps."

Being an early teacher of music in Eastern Mennonite School, he did much to determine the mold of music in this institution. He demonstrated most convincingly the superior values of sacred music and especially of the higher type of hymnody.

The Bible Teacher

Bro. Keener was a real student of the Word. While he did not have the opportunity of pursuing a definite course in Bible, he was, nevertheless, able to mine out rich treasures of the Book. Through his own studies he gained an accurate and fundamental understanding of the Scriptures. His approach to the Bible was no less theological than devotional. He mastered a technique of Bible study which was at once scientific and fruitful. Three books of the Bible, Ephesians, Hebrews, and Leviticus, seemed to offer him special challenges. In these the high appreciation of the spiritual nature of the Word as well as its great doctrinal content was realized from his study. Perhaps it was in Romans where our brother's highest interest was found. The great message of this epistle gripped his soul and inspired his teaching.

The Preacher

With no ostentation, Bro. Keener showed himself a great preacher. The same keen appreciation of the high values of the Word were brought into the pulpit. His expositions were clear and effective. People left his services thrilled with the great truths that were vividly pictured to them. In a very real way our brother set forth truth as a foundation for holy Christian living. In addition to the great themes stressed in his Bible teaching, our brother took genuine pleasure in depicting to congregations the Lord Jesus Christ both as a humble servant and as the glorified Lord and Master.

The Pastor and Counselor

In pastoral work our brother displayed an equal skill. He had a keen appreciation of the spiritual problems besetting the Christian. Humbly and effectively he could bring to the attention of erring souls their spiritual needs and could lead them to trust in God and to a holiness of life. He was sought frequently as a counselor. His spiritual advice was always accepted as that from a man of God. People had no occasion to feel that his judgment was biased or unfair. Full confidence could be placed in his rugged honesty and devotion to his Lord.

The work of counselling was especially valued in the local ministerial council as well as in the church conference. It was his particular skill to grasp the issues of a problem and to discover a safe and wise solution. Always conservative, appreciative of spiritual values, deeply devotional, kind, sympathetic, fair, and charitable—these describe our brother as minister and counselor.

The Christian

Bro. Keener lived close to the Lord. The spirit of devotion was always apparent in his life. It is a happy recollection of his family that he took time to be holy. Never was he hurried with the temporal affairs of life. He regarded the rush of modern life as destructive of the highest attainment in spirituality. It is these solid Christian virtues that have left their impression upon the Church and the Eastern Mennonite School. Truly he was a man of God and we who knew him gladly acknowledge what great blessing we have received from his life.

Henry H. Hershey (1855-1946)

BY IRA D. LANDIS

Henry Hershey was born May 19, 1855 near Intercourse in Leacock Township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, the son of Peter E. and Anna M. Hershey. His was a long and useful life in an important period in the history of both the church and the county. He was a descendant of the pioneer Andrew Hershey, who came from Switzerland in 1719 and located in Hempfield Township, and of Jacob Hershey who moved from the Reformed Mennonite Church section near Hershey, Dauphin County, to establish the Hershey family of Salisbury Township, Lancaster County. His parents lived on their farm, northeast of Intercourse. Here they reared a family of five. On December 6, 1877, Henry married Christie A., daughter of John and Mary Brubaker Denlinger of Paradise Township. In the spring they started farming on the homestead. They were blessed with four children, two of whom died in infancy. Anna (wife of Isaac Good) and Lloyd survive. Bro. Hershey and his wife accepted Christ as their

Saviour and were baptized by Isaac Eby at the Hershey Church when the entire Hershey-Paradise District numbered 300 members and when there were but two single men in the district. When the Sunday school opened at the Hershey Church, he was at first a teacher, then a secretary, and for seventeen years (1912-28) the superintendent. In those years he saw the school branch out to Red Well, Mt. Pleasant, and the Welsh Mountain, and the district grow in membership from 300 to over one thousand.

When the mission movement took shape in the Paradise District, the leaders were very good friends of Henry H. and found in him a staunch supporter. He became Secretary of the Sunday School Mission and so served from March 1, 1905, to January 19, 1916. After the organization of the Eastern Board, his place was left for younger men.

Mahlon Buckwalter and he were the superintendents of the mission effort of the Intercourse Schoolhouse east of his home, where seventy-five pupils gathered during a part of the year (1897-1904). At the first Sunday-school meeting in the county at Red Well in 1904, he discussed one of the topics, and his voice was often heard in the proceedings of the Sunday School Mission. From the start of the work on the Welsh Mountain in 1898 to 1918, when the Eastern Board assumed charge, he was a trustee and a promoter. He had a share in all the early phases of development that led to the present Good Samaritan Home.

From June 12 to September 1, 1906, he accompanied A. D. Wenger into the Canadian Northwest. Through Bro. Wenger's ministry thirty-seven confessions were made in the six different congregations visited. Most of these congregations were only recently colonized, struggling communities. Through this trip, Bro. Hershey received a church-wide vision broadening his interests and preparing him for future service.

When J. S. Shoemaker in 1922 came east in the interests of a larger publishing house, he approached his good friend Henry H., who although retired was always recognized as one possessing an ever helpful spirit. With horse and buggy he accompanied Bro. J. S. Shoemaker in canvassing much of Lancaster County. In the years 1922-25 he contacted 587 people receiving over $12,000 in annuities, loans and Gospel Herald subscriptions. This effort materially aided the Publishing House in enlarging her program. He continued to be a strong booster of the House and its editors. He distributed from house to house six hundred copies of Doctrines of the Bible, by Daniel Kauffman, and numerous copies of M. G. Weaver's Mennonites of Lancaster Conference, throughout Lancaster County without accepting any commission for his labors.

When in 1923 the first member was to be appointed to represent Lancaster Conference on the Publication Board, the Board chose none other than Henry H. Hershey. Following the death of his boyhood friend, Abram Metzler of Martinsburg, Pa., he was elected treasurer of the Executive Committee. In this capacity he served during the chairmanships of J. S. Shoemaker, D. D. Troyer, M. H. Shantz. He was succeeded by Lewis S. Martin in 1939. He first visited the Publishing House in 1906 and afterwards he visited the House many times. During this period important policies of the Publication Board were formulated; the Weaver's Bookstores were bought; the House was elevated from a condition of debt to that of a comfortable surplus. He continued his membership on, and his interest in, the work of the Board until his decease.

In 1926 he was appointed as conference statistician to collect facts and figures for both the Bishop Board and the Mennonite Yearbook. This position he faithfully filled until the end of 1939. The practices he established have been in principle followed since.

In 1923 he was put on a conference committee of six to bring 224 Russians to these shores and locate them mostly in the East. He was especially active herein and his labors of love were much appreciated by all. One such visited him within a few months of his death.

Bro. Hershey was much interested in genealogy and biography also. In 1929 he published his 219-page Hershey Family History, which covers the entire Jacob Hershey (1742-1825) family of his great-grandfather. About the same time he produced an eight-page brochure of the Henry Weber Family. In 1929 and 1934 he made several biographical contributions to the Gospel Herald series on Mennonite leaders. He was well informed on local church work through the centuries and especially the last, and he was an authority on family relationships throughout the entire Isaac Eby Bishop District.

HENRY H. HERSHEY

His first wife passed on in 1916; his second wife, Mary Weaver Colner, died in 1930; and his third wife, Rachel Swartzendruber Renno, died in 1945. He made the happy exchange on July 8, 1946, at the advanced age of ninety-one. After an appropriate service by Martin R. Hershey, G. Parke Book, and O. N. Johns at the Hershey Church, where he as a servant of his Lord went in and out for sixty-seven years, he was carried amidst a large concourse of friends to God's acre near by not far from earlier generations of his family.

Franklin has said:

"Write things worth reading, or Do things worth writing."

Our brother has done both and eternity alone will reveal the value of these labors of love during a long and useful life. So the Christ he exalted here, has now exalted him.

Lititz, Pa.

The task of bringing boys and girls to faith in Christ and nurturing them in the Christian life has always been one of the important responsibilities of the home and church. Today with the forces of evil so highly organized and the influences of the world making their impact upon the child very early in his life, it becomes extremely important that our boys and girls be given all the advantages of Christian influence and nurture during the impressionable years of childhood.

An understanding of the spiritual needs of children and the methods which have proved helpful in the cultivation of Christian experiences and the development of strong Christian character, are a primary requisite for being a successful Christian parent or an efficient worker with children.

Parents in the home will welcome this volume written in a plain concise style, as a handy manual to guide them in giving their children a religious nurture that is genuinely Christian. Teachers of children's classes will find it a practical and helpful volume to read and have at hand. Study groups and training classes will find the book well adapted for use as a textbook.
